2005 Trivia

Our club members reported a total of 146 AKC and non-AKC titles

- Agility titles: 57
- Conformation titles: 12
- Herding titles: 15
- Hunting titles: 1
- Lure Coursing titles: 1
- Obedience titles: 18
- Rally titles: 38
- Special titles: 4

And there were MANY others that were NOT reported! Imagine how long we would all be sitting here if they were.

We had ALL of the seven breed groups represented in our titles:

	Number of individual dogs in each group	Number of breeds
Sporting	13	4
Non-sporting	3	2
Toy	5	3
Terrier	6	3
Working	14	5
Hound	2	1
Herding	38	6
TOTAL	81	24

To total up all these titles took one person: 4 weeks 2-3 hours 3 nights of the week and 2 weekends of about 8 hours of time each for a total of about 46 hours of time and that is JUST for the plaques and Awards banquet...another 30 hours will be spent on the photo wall.

And we aren't even getting paid to do this???

Dog Trivia:

The largest recorded dog was an English Mastiff named Zorba. She weighed over 340 pounds and was over 8 foot long from nose to tail.

The smallest recorded dog was a Yorkshire terrier standing just 2-1/2" tall and weighing in at just a few ounces. He died young at just a little under 2 years old.

The oldest recorded dog was an Australian Cattle Dog named Bluey who worked sheep in Victoria Australia for over 20 years, lived to be 29 years old and 5 months before he was put down.

The Worlds Ugliest dog was a Chinese Crested dog named Sam who just died this year, put down at just a few months shy of his 14th birthday due to heart failure.
